

Specialized Primary Source Collections – Online!

Archives Unbound digitizes highly specialized collections and makes them available to scholars. These subject-specific collections support multi-disciplinary research and can be purchased individually.

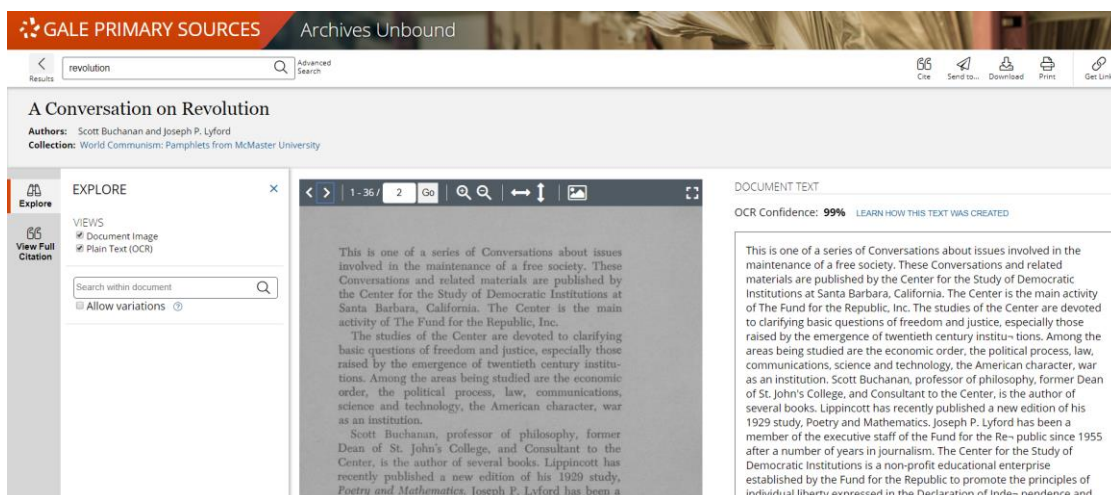

- Each collection can be purchased separately or in subject based bundles according to your needs
- Serves multiple research disciplines
- Unlimited, simultaneous usage provided
- Own the content outright, with no annual hosting fees

A Cross-searchable, Intuitive Platform

Not only does Archives Unbound allow scholars to conveniently browse rare materials online, but its robust platform also enables them to search for specific words and phrases within obscure documents or discover hitherto unknown material from unexpected sources.

- Cross-search all available collections
- Search full text with hit-term highlighting
- Print, download or email page images in PDF format or OCR format
- Zoom in/out, pan, rotate page images on the screen
- Generate citations
- Create permalinks to relevant documents for use in LibGuides, LMS and Course Syllabi
- Export documents to Google Drive or Microsoft Office 365
- Filter results by source library, document type, publication date, languages, and author

Depth & Breadth of the Archives Unbound Program

Since its inception in 2009 the Archives Unbound program has published more than 230 titles. The roots of the program are in microfilm, and the collection makes available targeted collections of interest to scholars. The Archives Unbound program consists of more than 322,833 titles totaling over 14.9 million pages. Individual titles in the collection range between 1,200 and 200,000 pages.

Broad topic clusters include:

- African American studies
- African studies
- American studies
- Asian studies
- British and European History
- Business and Economic History
- Cultural studies
- Gender, Sexuality and Women's studies
- Holocaust studies
- International studies
- Latin American and Caribbean studies
- Law, Politics, and Radical studies
- Middle Eastern studies
- Native American studies
- Political science
- Religious studies

Archives Unbound titles are available for digital scholarship projects via Gale's Digital Scholar Lab. Gale's Digital Scholar Lab allows you to explore your institution's holdings from Gale Primary Sources using Digital Humanities tools. Allowing scholars to rediscover and interpret the past through analysis and visualization of historical texts.

www.gale.com/primary-sources/archives-unbound